

- Q. Is she still living?
- A. Yes
- Q. Where does she live?
- A. Urbana, Maryland.
- Q. Did they have any children?
- A. Yes, the oldest son is named Roy B. Kidd.
- Q. Is he married?
- A. Yes.
- Q. To whom?
- A. Virgie Kidd.
- Q. Where do they live?
- A. He lives at Ladiesburg, Maryland, and she lives at 114 East Third Street, Frederick, Maryland. They had another child named Grace Kidd Brown.
- Q. Is her husband living?
- A. No.
- Q. Where does she live?
- A. She is now at Spring Grove Hospital, Catonsville, Maryland. She has been at the Hospital for many years for treatment.
- Q. Has there ever been a trustee or committee appointed to take charge of Mrs. Brown's property?
- A. Not to my knowledge, although the family regards her as being incompetent to conduct normal business transactions.
- My uncle, Joseph Brunner Kidd, also left surviving a daughter, Minnie Kidd Smith, who is now a widow, and lives in Baltimore, Maryland.
- He also had a son, Charles Howard Kidd, who died on or about April 7, 1955.
- Q. Did he leave a will?
- A. No.
- Q. Will you name the persons surviving constituting his heirs-at-law?
- A. He was survived by his widow, Mary A. Kidd; a son, Charles H. Kidd, Jr., who is not married; a daughter, Nancy M. Gilpin, who is married to Lewis J. Gilpin; a son, Thomas L. Kidd, who is married to Mary A. Kidd; a son, George W. Kidd, who is married to Betty Kidd; a daughter, Mary Ann Sloan, who is married to Robert Sloan; and a son, John E. Kidd, who is married to Patricia A. Kidd. All of the heirs of Charles Howard Kidd aforementioned live in Baltimore, Maryland. My uncle, Joseph Brunner Kidd, was survived also by a daughter, Blanche Kidd Fischer.
- Q. Is she still living?
- A. No. She died on or about 6 February 17, 1953.